ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the organization is:
COMBINED EASTERN SHORE HORSE SHOWS.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this organization shall be to encourage the member shows to improve their shows for both the exhibitor and the spectator, to have diversified horse shows, to serve and promote the best interests of the member shows and of the exhibitors who participate in them, to take any action which may be considered appropriate to accomplish the foregoing purpose, provided that no part of the receipts of this organization shall inure to the benefit of any member of this organization.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

1. Any horse show organization located on the Delmarva Peninsula, including the entire State of Delaware, which is interested in the objects of this organization shall be eligible.
2. Applications for membership must be made in writing to the Secretary and must be approved by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
3. Any member show may resign from the organization by presenting their resignation to the Secretary in writing. Upon making such resignation, all of their interests in the property and the moneys of the organization shall cease.
4. By a majority vote of the Board of Directors, any member show may, and shall, be discharged or expelled from the organization for neglect of duties or obligations as now and as may hereafter be prescribed by the By-Laws, and also for non-payment of fees and assessments levied or made, pursuant to such By-Laws and within the time prescribed for such payment.
5. A member can be expelled from this organization only after a member in good standing presents charges in writing to the Secretary. The Secretary shall call a meeting of the Elected Board of Directors, which will sit as a Trial Board. In all cases, the Trial Board's decision shall be final.

ARTICLE IV. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. This organization shall be managed by an Elected Board of fifteen Directors, who are elected for terms of two years; five Junior Board of Directors (must be at least 12 years of age), who will have one-half vote each and whose terms are for one year, five Directors-At-Large elected at the Annual Open Meeting for terms of one year; two Junior Directors-At-Large elected at the Annual Open Meeting who will have one-half vote each and whose terms are for one year; and Lifetime Honorary Directors to vote if present. One representative from each member show shall serve on the Board. Nominations for Elected Board Members may be made in writing to the Secretary prior to October 1.

2. Officers, consisting of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer shall be elected from among the fifteen member Elected Board of Directors, for a term of one year. The President may not serve more than two years consecutively. The President is to vote only in case of a tie.
3. All officers of this organization shall be elected at the last Annual Board meeting, not later than November 15th of each year, to take office following the Annual Awards Banquet.
4. One representative from each member show shall be certified to the Secretary of the organization. In case of an absence, a member show may appoint an alternate so each show will have an equal vote.
5. The Board of Directors shall elect all persons or delegates or delegations, which are necessary to represent the interests of this organization in any other organization, from time to time.
6. Any elective office that shall be vacated during the time between annual meetings shall be filled by appointment of the Board of Directors to serve until the next annual meeting.
7. The President shall appoint a replacement to complete the term of any Board Member who does not attend any Board meetings during the first year of the term.
8. The Board of Directors shall have the power to conduct the business of the organization during the intervals between membership meetings. The Elected Board of Directors shall act as a Trial Board in the matter of any disciplinary action with the organization against any member.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS

1. Meetings of this organization may be held at the written request to the Secretary of the members or at the discretion of the President at a time and place also at the discretion of the President.
2. The Annual Open Meeting of the organization shall be held each year During the month of January at a time and place to be arranged by the Board of Directors. It will be the first meeting of the calendar year.
3. Notice of the meetings will be sent to each Board member at least five days before the meeting. An emergency meeting may be called upon twenty-four hours notice OR a telephone vote may be held each person to be called and the vote recorded. E-mail may be used for communication with the Board.
4. Representatives of member shows may attend meetings but only one official representative from each show will have a vote.
5. Meetings of the organization shall be conducted according to Roberts "Rules Of Order" and the suggested order of business shall be as follows: Call to Order, Reading of the Minutes, Secretary's Report. Treasurer's Report, Old and/or Unfinished Business, Election of Officers, New Business, Adjournment.

ARTICLE VI DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT

It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the organization and its Board of Directors and to enforce the observance of all parts of the Constitution and By-Laws. Furthermore, at the first meeting after election, the President shall appoint any necessary committee chairman. Each chairman shall appoint additional members to the committee, of not more than five including the Chair.

ARTICLE VII DUTIES OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT

It shall be the duty of the Vice-President to preside in the absence of the President.

ARTICLE VIII DUTIES OF THE SECRETARY AND TREASURER

These offices may be held by the same person or by two different people. The principle duties of the Secretary and the Treasurer shall be to keep accurate and detailed minutes of the meetings of the organization and its Board of Directors and to safely and systematically keep all books, records, papers, documents. And correspondence belonging to the organization or in any way pertaining to the business thereof. These officers shall also deposit the funds of the organization in some bank, pay all bills approved by the Board by check, give a complete report on the financial condition of the organization to the membership at each regular meeting, maintain a complete a complete roster of members, and collect all dues.

ARTICLE IX DUTIES OF THE VARIOUS COMMITTEES

The duties of the various committees shall be such as from time to time are prescribed by the Board of Directors.

The annual dues of the organization shall be fixed by the Board of Directors at the first meeting following the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENTS

The Constitution and the By-Laws may be amended or altered by a simple majority vote of the members present.

CESHS RULES

RULE I DEFINITIONS

The Combined Eastern Shore Horse Shows herewith presents its Rule Book as it has been adopted. These Rules apply to all member shows, exhibitors, riders, drivers, trainers, agents, grooms, handlers, spectators, and others in attendance at a recognized show. These Rules are to be used in conjunction with MHSA Rules whenever applicable. For any rule not specified herein, reference shall be made to the current rules of the United States Equestrian Federation, which shall be controlling. In the Western classes, any rule not specified herein will be referred to the USEF Rulebook (Chapter WS); in questionable cases, please refer to the AQHA Rulebook.

1. The CESHS competition year begins on December 1 and extends through November 30.
2. The age of an individual as of December 1st will be maintained throughout the competition year.
3. Animals over 14.2 hands are horses.
4. All entries in classes restricted to animals of a particular breed must have available the original registration papers issued by a recognized national or international registry.

RULE II MEMBERSHIPS

1. CESHS limits the number of shows per year to twenty.
2. Outstanding dues from shows not held, and any penalties assessed, must be paid before a show may be reinstated.
3. No individual membership is required in the CESHS to be eligible for High Score Awards.
4. Each horse or pony exhibited in a performance or confirmation class must be registered with CESHS for points to count toward our Annual High Score Awards. The registration fee is $20.00 per animal. Those registering ponies must present measurement cards at the time of registration. Animals used only for equitation do not need to be registered. Points will accumulate beginning on the date of registration. Registration may be made at member shows.
5. Each Equitation rider (including Horsemanship and Medal) must be registered with the CESHS for points to count toward our Annual High Score Awards or to qualify for the Medal Finals. The registration fee is $20.00 per rider. Points will accumulate beginning on the date of registration. Registration may be made at member shows.

RULE III CONDUCT OF RECOGNIZED SHOWS

Each member show:

1. Shall be located on the Delmarva Peninsula, including the entire state of Delaware.
2. Shall accept the proposed List of Classes as set up by the CESHS.
3. Shall pay $75.00 dues per year, to be paid prior to the printing of the annual show schedule.
4. Shall receive a set of mailing tapes each year from the Secretary.
5. Shall publish a Prize List and submit it for approval in accordance with Rule XI. (either by mail or on line, but it must be on the CESHS web site.)
6. Shall have adequate show rings for the competition. The recommended size is 125' x 250' minimum, and 150' x 300' for classes over fences.
7. Shall have proper jumps in all divisions.
8. Shall set fences at the correct height or classes will not count.
9. Shall, in all hunter and Delmarva classes over fences, include at least two oxers in the course.
10. Shall have at least three schooling fences. When possible, the schooling area is to be away from the Pleasure ring.
11. Shall award ribbons as specified in the Prize List. A choice of cash and/or trophy may be awarded in all divisions except equitation, in which cash may not be awarded.
12. Shall limit controlled schooling to not more than six animals in the ring at a time.
13. Shall pay CESHS a fee of $3.00 for each horse or pony showing that day. The money to be dedicated to the year- end awards of the CESHS.

RULE IV MEASUREMENT OF ENTRIES

1. Each member show shall be responsible for measuring animals when required.
2. Before an entry is measured, it must be jogged for soundness and show no evidence of lameness. If found to be lame, the entry cannot compete at that competition and no measurement will be made.
3. Current USEF, VHSA, MHSA, and CESHS cards will be accepted.
4. Members of the CESHS Measurement Committee are:
Rand Thaw, Gayle Dunkleman, and Myra Spencer.
5. A Steward and one member of this Committee are authorized to measure.
6. In the case of a protest, a Judge, one of the Stewards, and a member of this Committee shall act as a Protest Committee. Protest fees shall go to the CESHS.

RULE V PROTESTS, CHARGES, AND HEARINGS

An exhibitor may make a protest in writing concerning an alleged specific violation of a rule or a condition of a class. The Board, upon receipt of the protest and a $50.00 protest fee, will consider the protest. If the Board finds in favor of the complaint, the protest fee will be refunded; if not, the fee is retained by the CESHS. The Protest should proceed under the following rules:

1. The Elected Board of Directors will vote on the protest. The Elected Board consists of 15 Adults, 5 Adults elected at large, 5 Juniors, 2 Juniors elected at large. Each Junior vote to count $\frac{1}{2}$.
2. The President will not vote, except in the case of a tie.
3. A written ballot will be used when voting.
4. The tabulation will be decided by a simple majority. Abstentions will count as a nonvote (neither for nor against) and they will be set aside, and a new simple majority number will be assumed (omitting abstentions).
5. The result of the tabulation will remain secret, the result will be read as a yeay or a nay.

RULE VI. VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES

1. A member show that violates any rule shall be penalized $50.00 for each infraction upon simple majority vote of the Elected Board of Directors at a hearing by the Board upon the merits of the case.
2. The CESHS may file a charge, upon written notification by either of the stewards assigned to the show, of the violation(s).
3. A charge may be filed by an exhibitor affected by the violation by written notice to the CESHS within 30 days of the conclusion of the show. A $50.00 fee must accompany the notice. If the Board finds in favor of the complaint, the protest fee will be refunded; if not, the fee is retained by the CESHS.
4. The charge must be specific as to the violation alleged.
5. The show manager designated by the show as a representative to the Board shall be given written notice of the hearing not less than 15 days before the hearing and shall have the right to attend the hearing and answer or refute the charge.
6. Penalties shall be due and payable by the member show upon notification. All penalties shall be in addition to the dues.

Trophies and ribbons will be awarded to the owner of the horses or ponies, or to the riders in equitation classes, compiling the highest number of points in their class or division at member shows throughout the year. Ribbons will be awarded for second through sixth places for the class or division.
3. No credit will be given for classes in which the specifications are not in accordance with the CESHs rules.
4. For points in any class to count toward High Score Awards, at least three entries must compete, (exception Lead Line Merit class may have two).
 - (a) If a show has a class with less than three entries, it must be announced that the class is not filled. Exhibitors have the option to compete and receive no points or to withdraw from the class and have the entry fee refunded.
 - (b) The show retains the option to cancel classes with less than three entries, in which case the entry fee will be refunded.
 - (c) In Breed classes only (Quarter Horse, Paint, Arabian, Appaloosa, Mini Horse), if there are less than three entries, the exhibitors may compete and points will count for yearend awards. When there are less than three entries, points will be awarded under a special exemption:

1 entry: 1 point

2 entries: 1st place – 2 points , 2nd place – 1 point

Halter to be awarded ½ of above

To be eligible a year end High Score Award, an exhibitor is required to show a minimum of three shows if using only the special exemption .

5. A limit of five designated classes per division will count for High Score Awards unless otherwise designated in the division rules.
6. Credit will be given for the first eight places only, regardless of the number of ribbons offered by the show. Points in all classes will count 10,6,4,3,2, 1.5,1, and 1/2 except halter classes, which will count 5,3,2,1, ½ and ¼ ..

(English Pleasure Horse and Pony 10-6-4-2-1-.5. Champion 10 points and Reserve Champion 6 points.

In the event of a tie go to Section O of this rule book.)

7. Championships and Reserve Championships for all Hunter divisions shall be awarded to two of the four horses or ponies which have accumulated the most points over fences. In addition, only these horses or ponies will receive full points for Under Saddle classes. In all other divisions, classes count equally, except halter classes, which count half points in specified divisions. Only the first eight ribbons count toward Championships regardless of the number offered.
 - (a) In the case of a tie score for all Hunter divisions, the Championship and/or Reserve is awarded to the horse that accumulated the most points over fences. If horses have equal number of points over fences and no points under saddle, the will be decided as in part (b).
 - (b) In the case of a tie in all other divisions, horses must be shown at a walk, trot/jog and canter/lope. Competitors may be asked to hand gallop at the discretion of the judge. This competition is judged as an independent under saddle class with soundness, and performance to count as prescribed throughout the section. If all tied horses are declared unsound, selection of the winner among such tied competitors is left to the discretion of the judges. If one or more tied competitors have left the show grounds or do not want to hack, the remaining competitor will receive the award by forfeit. If no tied competitors want to hack, the tie may be decided by a coin toss. If the tie is not resolved before the end of the show, no points will be awarded to the tied competitors.
8. Show Championships will count ten points. Reserve Championships will count six points. For champion and reserve points to count toward High Score Awards, there must be at least three classes offered and at least two must fill and run.

9. The Secretary will keep the points and the member show has a responsibility to send records to the Secretary.
10. In the event of a tie the High Score Award will be awarded to each winner.
11. Special trophy awards will be presented as listed in these Rules.
12. Hall Of Fame Award: Honorees are to be selected by the Hall of Fame committee. Those being inducted will be kept secret until the year end banquet.

A. The Hall of Fame committee will consist of active members previously nominated to the Hall of Fame. The committee is charged with recognition for those individuals who have been outstanding in their contributions to the CESHS or the sport.

B. Guidelines for the Hall of Fame:

1. The committee shall consist of a minimum of three but not more Than five, active and interested CESHS Hall of Fame individual Members who are in good standing with the CESHS. The chairman will be chosen by majority vote of the active Hall of Fame membership.
2. In the event of a lack of active Hall of Fame members, the President may appoint committee members chosen from the Board of Directors.
3. Each year the Secretary will canvass the eligible members of the committee as defined by 1 and 2 above prior to the first meeting following the annual awards banquet and announce the committee members at the first meeting.
4. In the event of lack of the minimum three active Hall of Fame members, the outgoing President may appoint committee members chosen from the Board of Directors at the first meeting following the awards banquet.
5. The Committee will exercise extreme care in the selection of individual and shall not feel that it is necessary to induct new members yearly.
6. The Purpose of the Hall of Fame is to honor persons while they are living; therefore, the Committee will find a balance in its inductees.
7. Each year, the Committee will select not more than two (2) individuals to be considered for the Hall of Fame.
8. The Hall of Fame Committee must be unanimous in its support of the candidates.

C. Suggested Guidelines for inductees into the Hall of Fame:

1. An individual who is or has been a member of the CESHS for at least 10 years, shown distinguished and outstanding service during that time.
2. An individual born on the "Delmarva peninsula" (DE., Eastern Shore of Maryland, or the VA. Peninsula) or has been a legal resident for at least 10 years.
3. An individual who has made major contributions to the sport of showing horses/ponies, influencing the lives of others in the horse field and/or in the guidance of the policies and dedicated service to the CESHS.

RULE VIII. LICENSED JUDGES

1. Each member show shall have an approved Judge who is at least an "r" in some association. An exception may be made, however, for a judge officiating in a ring in which only Western, breed, 4-H, Limited adult, Open, and unrecognized classes are held. In that situation, a committee of board members may consider approval of a substitute judge upon request.

2. No Judge may officiate more than two times in the same year.

RULE IX. STEWARDS

1. Each member show shall have an approved Show Steward or a Steward and a back up Steward appointed by the President.
2. The back up Steward can officiate if the Steward has to leave before the show is finished or if there is a question concerning a division in which the Steward is an exhibitor or has a student or a horse.
3. Stewards are required to fill out the evaluation sheet to be given to the Secretary.
4. The names are to be on the Prize List and/or be announced throughout the show.
5. Stewards are to act in accordance with instructions this Rule Book and in this Rule Book and in the USEF Rule Book.

RULE X COMPETITION OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES

1. Show management shall be responsible for sending all Judge's cards or copies (used or not) and a complete list of exhibitors and the show numbers to the Secretary of the CESHS within two weeks after the show. A member show that has Pony Hunters must designate the proper division for each pony exhibited.
2. Each show shall file with the Secretary of the CESHS the name of the person to represent the show during the year. In the event any representative is changed, the name of the new representative shall be filed as soon as the change is made.
3. Each member show must have an ambulance, a doctor, or a registered nurse, or a proper substitution, on the grounds at all times. This includes schooling sessions before or during the show, on the date of the show.
4. Each member show should have a farrier and a veterinarian on call.

RULE XI PRIZE LISTS

1. Shall submit a copy of the proposed prize list to the Secretary or the President for the CESHS approval. Such list is to be submitted at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the show. Such list to contain ALL that is to be printed. No changes to the class offerings or the officials may be made after the review by the CESHS unless an additional review is made at least (30) days prior to the date of the show. A penalty shall be assessed at the rate of $10.00 for each day that the list is submitted beyond the thirty-day requirement.
2. A complete Prize List, including Judge's names, shall be made available to the exhibitors, either by mail or on the internet, including the CESHS web site. If a mailed copy is requested, by an exhibitor, the request must be granted. It is recommended that the Prize List be published and available at least three weeks before the competition date.

3. No recognized classes may be added after the prize list has been mailed.
4. If classes are offered which will not count toward the CESHs High Score Awards, those classes must be clearly designated in the Prize List.
5. The order of classes may not be changed after the Prize List has been accepted except in the case of an emergency. The exhibitors in the class must agree to any change.

RULE XII. ENTRIES

1. Each member show shall use an entry blank containing the correct wording according to the current USEF or MHSA Rule Book.
2. Exhibitors are required to pay a fee of $3.00 per animal, per show, for CESHs Office and Trophy Fee. The fee is to be collected by the member show and remitted to the CESHs.
3. Post entries are accepted up to the beginning of the class. Entries are not accepted after the first horse enters the ring.

RULE XIII. GENERAL RULES

1. Protective headgear is required in all classes over fences and in the schooling area.
2. USEF approved PVC poles are permitted but must be properly weighted to prevent dislodging more easily than wood poles.
3. Martingales are prohibited in any under saddle class, equitation or performance, except CESHs Medal classes.

2. A rider may not cross enter into any other MHSA Regional Hunter, pleasure, or equitation division or class, except Short Stirrup Equitation Walk and Walk-Trot classes and Lead Line, where shows permit.
3. Stallions shall be barred from all classes.
4. No martingales allowed.
5. A rider having won in mini short stirrup equitation classes shall not lose their maiden, novice or limit equitation status when showing in this division. A rider having losing (or lost) their maiden status shall not be eligible for short stirrup classes. Loss of maiden status shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of MHSA Rule I, Part 1, Sec.
 - 4, either on flat or over fences, whichever the case may be.

6. A show may offer 3 or 4 of the class options below in their mini short stirrup equitation division.

Mini- Stirrup Walk:

To be judged at a walk both ways of the ring. To be judged on rider's hands, seat, guidance, control, and suitability of mount.

Mini-Stirrup Walk – Trot:

To be shown at a walk and trot both ways of the ring. To be judged on rider's hands, seat, guidance, control, and suitability of mount.

Mini-Stirrup Walk - Trot Pony:

To be shown at a walk and trot both ways of the ring. To be judged on suitability of the mount to be a Mini Short Stirrup Pony. Ponies' manners are to be emphasized.

Mini-Stirrup Over Ground Poles:

to be shown over 4 ground poles around the ring at the trot or canter, rider's preference and not to be penalized. To be judged on rider's hands, seat, guidance, control, and suitability of mount.

Mini-Stirrup 4 X Rails Over Fences:

to be shown over four (4) 12" x-rails at the trot or canter, rider's preference and not to be penalized. To be judged on rider's hands, seat, guidance, control, and suitability of mount.

7. Mini Stirrup Participation – to be awarded to those riders who compete in at least one-half of the shows in the show year, but do not obtain sufficient points to earn a 1st thru 6th place, to be awarded at the year end Banquet. Points in first class only, to count towards this award.

WESTERN, HORSEMANSHIP, AND BREED CLASSES

II. WESTERN PLEASURE

1. Hunters are not eligible for Pleasure classes.
2. Western Pleasure mounts may cross enter into English Pleasure.
3. Ponies shall be ridden by juniors in all classes.
4. Stallions are barred from classes limited to Junior exhibitors.
5. A hackamore or a curb, half-breed, or spade bit is permissible. Hackamore means the use only of a rawhide braided, leather braided, or rope bosal. Absolutely no iron will be permitted under the jaws, regardless of how padded or covered. Chain curbs are permissible but must meet approval of the Judge, must be at least one-half inch wide, and must lay flat against the jaw. No wire curbs, narrower than one-half is permitted.
6. In Junior Rider classes, horses and ponies are eligible.
7. Martingales and tie-downs are prohibited.
8. Only one hand may be used on the reins and the hand may not be changed except to negotiate an obstacle in a trail class. Exception: Two hands may be used when riding a Junior Horse in a bosal or snaffle.
9. Pleasure Class Specifications.

A division must have a minimum of three classes, no two of which may be alike. Shows may offer classes divided by Adult Rider and Junior Rider, or the two may be combined. There will be a yearend award offered for both Adults and Juniors. The horse or pony may not show in both divisions at the same show.

 - a. Western Pleasure. To be shown both ways of the ring at a walk, jog, and lope on a reasonably loose rein without undue restraint. To be judged on suitability of horse to rider, manners, performance, and ability to give a safe, comfortable ride.
 - b. Working Western. To be shown both ways of the ring at a walk, jog, and lope on a reasonably loose rein without undue restraint. To work a figure eight individually and execute stops. To be judged on suitability of horse to rider, performance, and ability to give a safe, comfortable ride.
 - c. Western Trail. To be shown over and through obstacles. To be judged on the performance of the horse over obstacles, with emphasis on manners, response to the rider, suitability, and quality of movement. Credit will be given to horses negotiating the obstacles with style and some degree of speed, providing quality is not sacrificed. Each obstacle can be given an obstacle score that should be added or subtracted from. Examples of a zero-obstacle score – Three (3) refusals at an obstacle, a fall by horse or rider, no attempt to perform an obstacle, failure to enter/exit obstacle from the correct side or direction. See USEF or AQHA rules. Horse will also be judged on the line of travel between obstacles. At least six (6) obstacles must be used.

Judge has the right to dismiss a horse or rider from the class for unsafe conditions.

- d. Western Reining. To perform the required pattern individually and separately. To be judged on neatness, dispatch, ease, calmness, and the speed with which the pattern is performed.
- e. Western Free Style. To be shown both ways of the ring at a walk, jog, and lope. Each participant shall then have one minute to demonstrate a particular skill of the horse or pony. Judged 50% on rail work and 50% on the skill.
- f. Western Command. To perform both ways of the ring at any gait requested. Refusal to take commands immediately or break of gait will cause elimination.
- g. Western Versatility. To be shown both ways of the ring at a walk, jog, and lope. Grooms may then assist in stripping the horses for judging on conformation. Judged 50% on performance and manners on the flat, 50% on conformation.

JJ. HORSEMANSHIP EQUITATION

- 1. Open to both Juniors and Adults
- 2. A year end Award will be offered.
- 3. The class is designed to evaluate the rider's ability to execute, in concert with their horse, a set of maneuvers prescribed by the judge with smoothness while exhibiting poise and confidence. The pattern should be precise with the rider and the horse working in complete unison, executing each maneuver with subtle aids and cues. The pattern will be posted.
- 4. Horsemanship Specifications.
 - a. All exhibitors must enter the ring and then work individually. After all riders have worked their pattern the whole class may work at all three gaits at least one way of the ring.
 - b. The following maneuvers are acceptable in a pattern: walk, jog, trot, extended trot, lope, or extended lope in a straight line, curved line, serpentine, circle or figure eight; or a combination of these gaits and maneuvers: stop, back in a straight or curved line; turn or pivot, rollbacks, side pass, flying or simple change, counter canter. A back is required, judges should not ask the rider to mount or dismount.
